

Frank Doel In his 30/40s at the beginning and ages 20 years through to his 50/60s, Bookseller in London. Lead character, very large part.

Page 25-26: "Dear Miss Hanff: I expect you are getting a bit worried ... That looks on tempests and is never shaken."

Pages 35-36: "Dear Miss Hanff! You will be glad to know ... We will mark it..."

Cecily Farr Aged 25-30. Secretary to Marks and Company. On stage a lot with plenty of business and a few speeches.

Pages 17-18: "Dear Helene: I brought the enclosed snapshots ... I shall have to close. Sincerely, Cecily."

Maxine Stuart Aged 30's/40's. Actress from New York, she is Helene Hanff's closest friend and confidant.

Page 28: "Dear Heart, it is the loveliest ... and I couldn't stay any longer."

Megan Wells Aged 20's. Welsh Secretary to the bosses. Small speaking role / on stage a fair bit.

Page 24: "Dear Miss Hanff: This is just to let you know... your trip a happy one."

Bill Humphries Aged 30's/40's. Cataloguer. On stage a lot, small spoken role.

Pages 24-25: "Dear Miss Hanff: For nearly two years ... Sincerely Bill Humphries."

Mr Martin Aged 50's/60's. Older bookseller on stage a lot, but only 3 lines.

Page 13-14: "Mrs Farr! About these invoices here... Mrs Farr!"

Mrs Todd Secretary. Small speech at the end of Act 2.

Page 71: "Dear Miss Hanff: I have just come across ... seven days later."

Alvin Off stage voice. New York porter. 2 lines.

Page 4: "A parcel of books arrived ... A real pleasure."

Thomas Youth. Non-speaking role. A little stage business at end of Act 2.

Pilot (Voice Recorded)

Page 72: "Ladies and gentlemen ... Thank you."